Nexteer

At Nexteer we do have a paid co-op program for university students and there are usually several opportunities available within Nexteer (both at our Auburn Hills and Saginaw locations) that are listed on our careers site (just search "co-op"): <https://jobs.nexteer.com/>

For Communications specifically, we have a co-op student who will be graduating in May 2024 so we will be looking for a new Marketing Communications Co-op for Summer 2024 and into the 2024-2025 school year. That job is not posted now because it's not an open position but will be posted probably around March 2024.
